The North Carolina State Bar

217 E. Edenton Street (27601)
Post Office Box 25908
Raleigh, North Carolina 27611
(919) 828-4620
NCBar.gov

December 02, 2025

Mr. Weheal Wem
3 Perdue Place
Asheville, NC 28806

Re: Complaint received concerning Attorney Amy Laura Broughton

Dear Mr. Wem:

The North Carolina State Bar has reviewed the complaint against Amy Laura Broughton that you submitted on 11/06/2025. As indicated in the State Bar's initial response to your submission, state law provides that the State Bar may only consider complaints alleging facts that—if true—would constitute a violation of the Rules of Professional Conduct. Your allegations against Amy Laura Broughton do not meet that requirement. Accordingly, the State Bar cannot consider your complaint and is not opening a grievance file. There is no appeal process after a decision has been made regarding a grievance complaint.

Please understand that the power of the State Bar's Grievance Committee is limited to determining whether there is sufficient evidence to show that a lawyer violated the Rules of Professional Conduct, and if so, to make a recommendation about what professional disciplinary action is appropriate. Although you may be unhappy or dissatisfied with a lawyer's actions, the Committee cannot take action unless the lawyer's behavior violates one or more of the specific Rules of Professional Conduct applicable to North Carolina lawyers. Since the conduct you allege Amy Laura Broughton engaged in does not violate those Rules, the State Bar cannot act on your complaint.

Sincerely,

Office of Counsel Intake Unit
North Carolina State Bar

Carmen Hoyme Bannon - Counsel
Jennifer A. Porter, G. Patrick Murphy, Alex G. Nicely - Senior Deputy Counsel
Savannah P. McLamb, J. Cameron Lee, Elizabeth F. Starnes, Robert W. Weston, Kelley A. DeAngelus, B. Tessa Hale, Jessica M. Arnold,
Ryan C. Meisnere, Kathryn H. Shields, Alec J. Glenn, Danielle Marquis Elder, Michael Manset, Kerry A. Sullivan - Deputy Counsel
Katherine E. Jean - Of Counsel